ASTEC Charter Schools

Home of the Comets

Biography

DaLeesa Wyatt
Music

DaLeesa Wyatt is an accomplished musician with an expansive skill set that includes chamber work, musical directing, piano instruction, researcher, and classroom lecturing. She completed a Bachelor of Music in piano performance from Oklahoma Baptist University and a Masters of Music from the University of North Texas in musicology, specializing in early American hymnody.

Comfortable in a variety of settings, Ms. Wyatt has served as musical director and assistant musical director for productions within the Oklahoma City metro area. As a productions and rehearsal accompanist, she has served the metro area with The Last Five Years, Oklahoma!, The Secret Garden, Into the Woods and The Music Man. She now serves as musical director for The Bethany Stage.

Ms. Wyatt is an active chamber and recital musician performing with other professional instrumentalists and vocalists in the area. She is also an active researcher in the practice of church music promoting the historical context of church music as well as performance practices. Ms. Wyatt works with fellow musician and Director of Choral Studies at Southern Nazarene University, Jim Graves, researching and presenting during the annual Hymn Festival in Bethany, Oklahoma.

Ms. Wyatt enjoys spending her time with her husband and three nieces. Her passions include reading, writing, and competitive dog sports.